Depuis quelques instants, Orion a paru au-dessus du rocher. C'est le chasseur noir, la terreur des forêts; il s'est arrêté à la vue de Sylvia et des Nymphes et s'est penché avec précaution pour suivre des yeux leurs ébats. De son côté Aminta, à demi caché par le socle de la statue, contemple ce tableau avec ravissement.

SCÈNE.

Allegro. Soudain une des Nymphes avise à terre la houlette et le toutes témoignent de leur indignation à la pensée

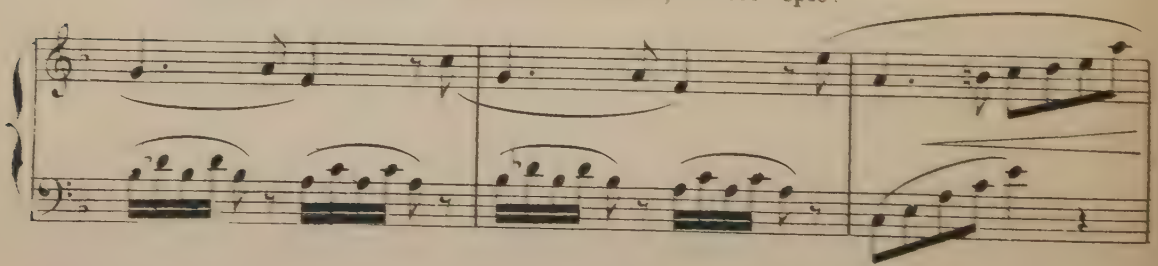
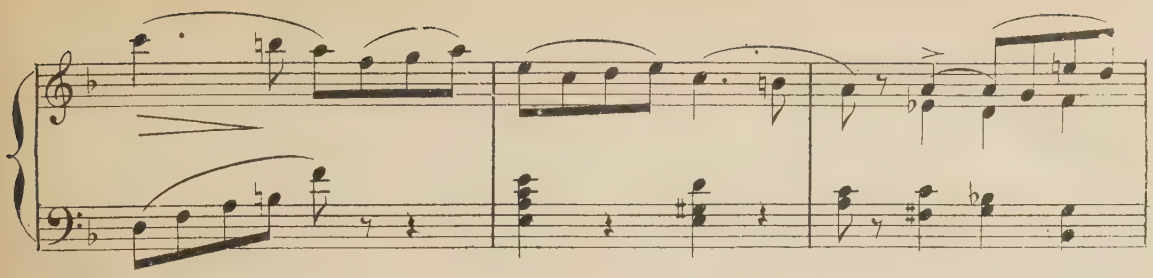
qu'un mortel est caché dans les buissons, et les épie.





Les baigneuses s'empressent de reprendre leurs armes et leur peau de tigre, les autres cherchent de tous cotés le coupable.

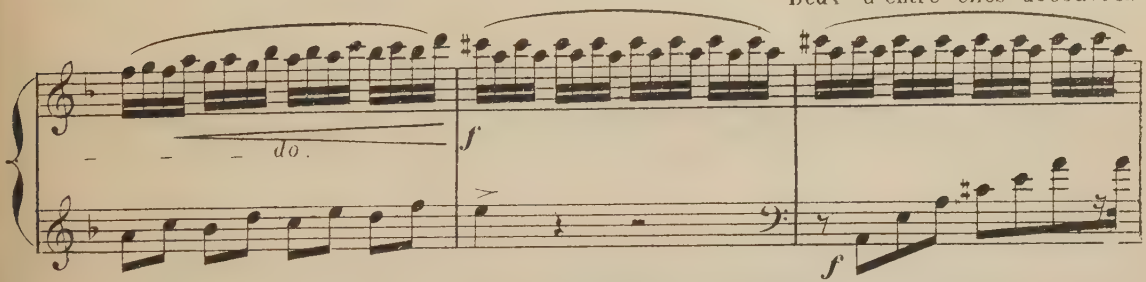
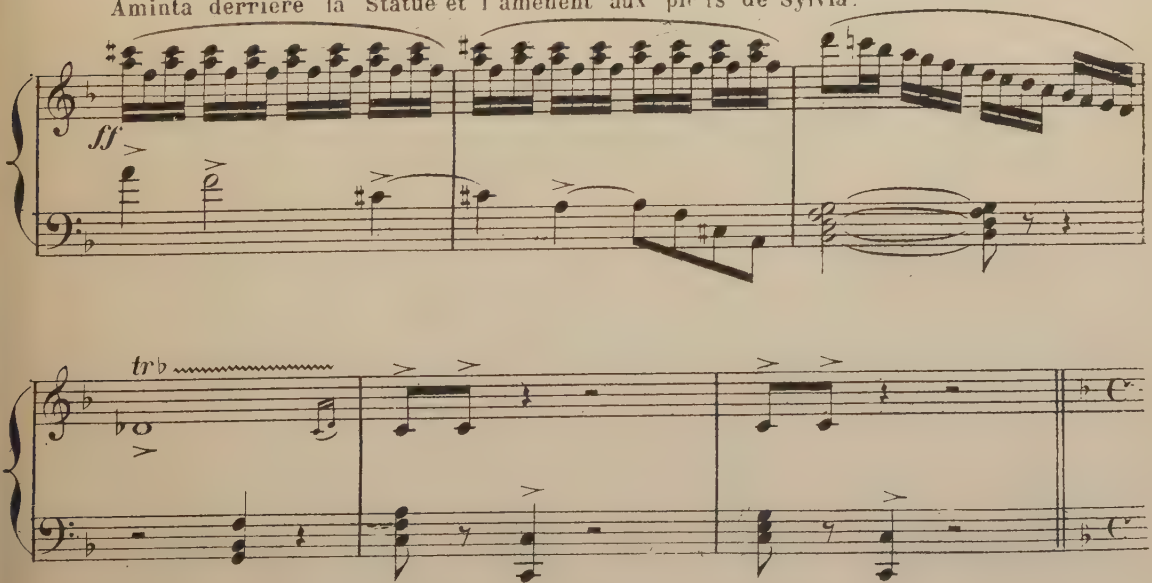
Deux d'entre elles découvrent



Aminta derrière la Statue et l'amènent aux pieds de Sylvia.



Aminta prosterné semble oublier le danger qui le menace pour jouir du Andante con moto. (une mesure en vaut deux du Mouvement précédent.)

bonheur de contempler Sylvia. Elle l'interroge du regard comme pour lui de--mander la raison de son audace.
Le berger lui montre la statue de l'Amour, et, la main sur son cœur, lui fait don de sa vie.

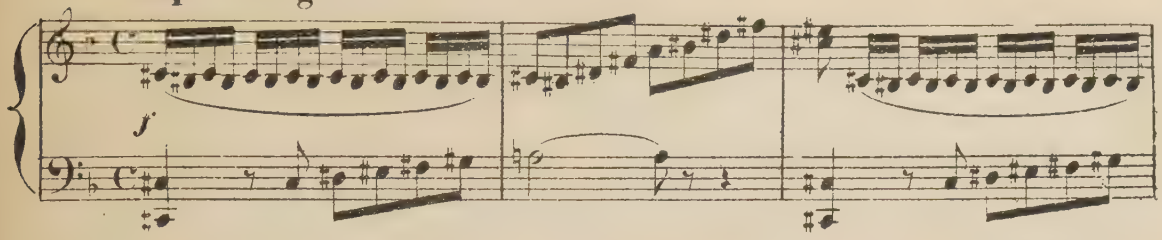
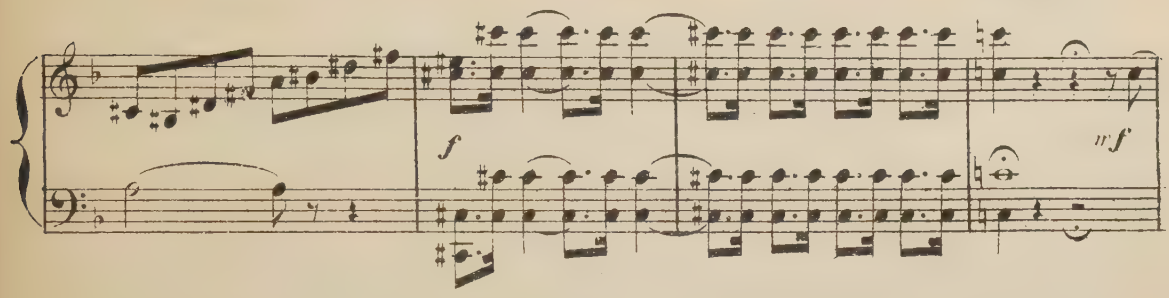
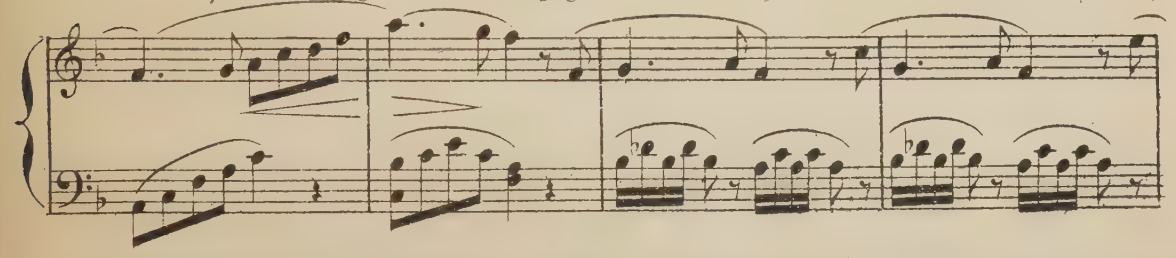
Sylvia, dans un premier mouvement de colère, lève une flèche pour en percer Aminta.

1°. tempo. Allegro.

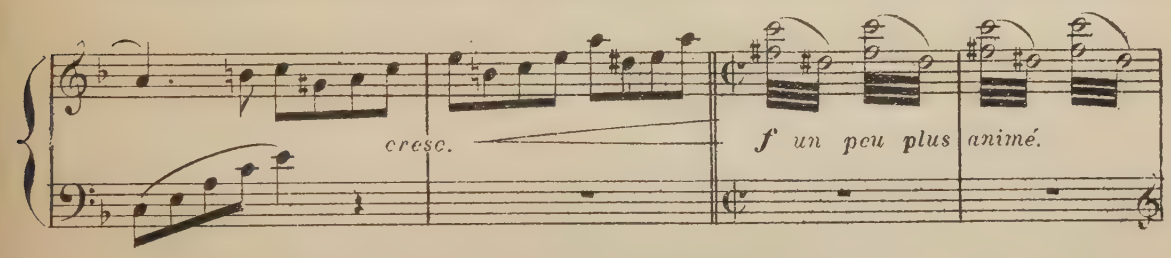


Mais se


ravisant, elle fait signe à ses compagnes qu'un simple berger est indigne de sa vengeance;



c'est à l'Amour même qu'elle adressera ses coups en décochant sa flèche contre la statue du Dieu.



Aminta court se placer devant la statue pour la protéger d'un pareil sacrilége, mais, en vain, il tend vers Sylvia ses mains suppliantes; celle-ci a tendu son arc... la flèche part et touche Aminta en pleine poitrine.

très-lent. Le berger chancelle et tombe en arrachant la flèche de sa blessure et en envoyant à Sylvia un dernier baiser. La nymphe demeure implacable et, se redressant avec fierté, elle jette comme une imprécation à la statue de l'Amour.
Soudain la statue tend son arc et lance une flèche. Sylvia tressaille et porte la main à son cœur. Les Nymphes s'empressent autour d'elle; l'une d'elles ramasse à ses pieds une flèche d'or. Es-tu blessée? demande-t'on à Sylvia...Non! répond elle avec un sourire de défi; il ne m'a pas touchée....

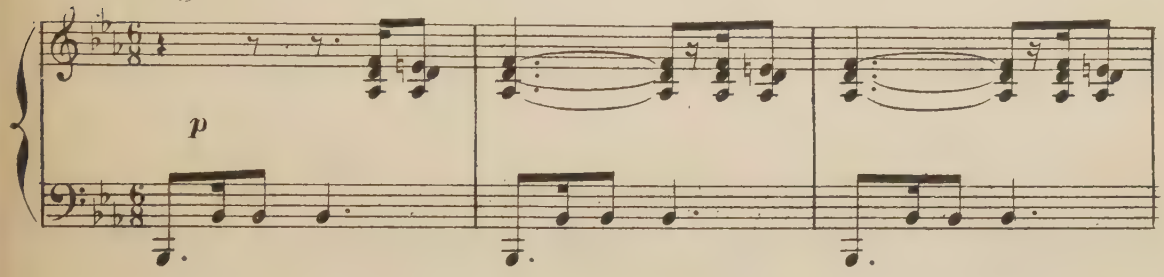
Allegretto. Et s'emparant de la flèche, elle la met dans son carquois.



Le jour commence à naître; c'est l'heure où les divinités des bois se renferment dans leur demeure et où les mortels repren-nent possession de la terre.

Aminta, ils s'empressent autour de lui pour essayer de le ranimer.

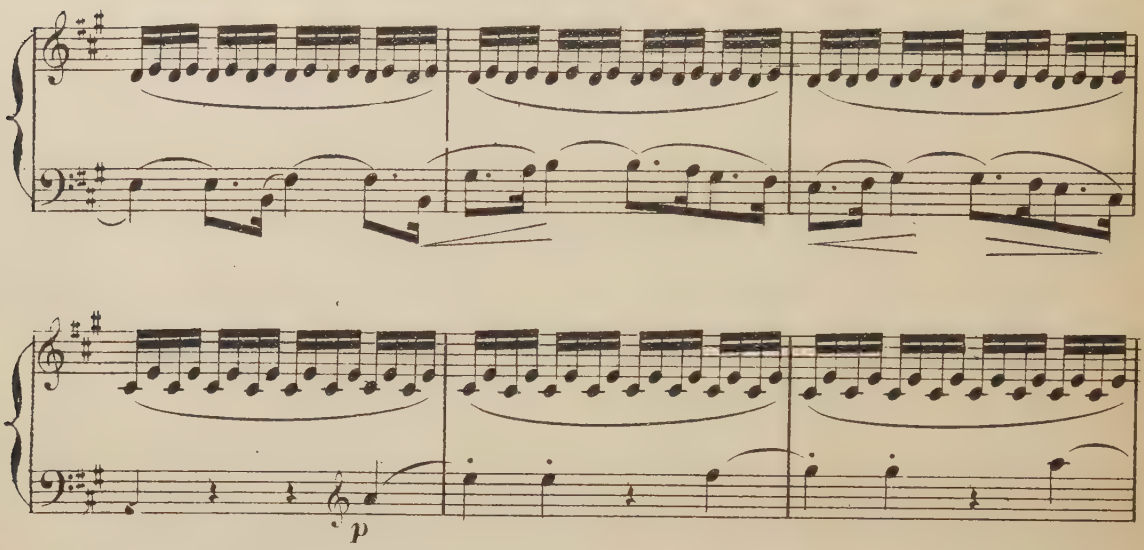
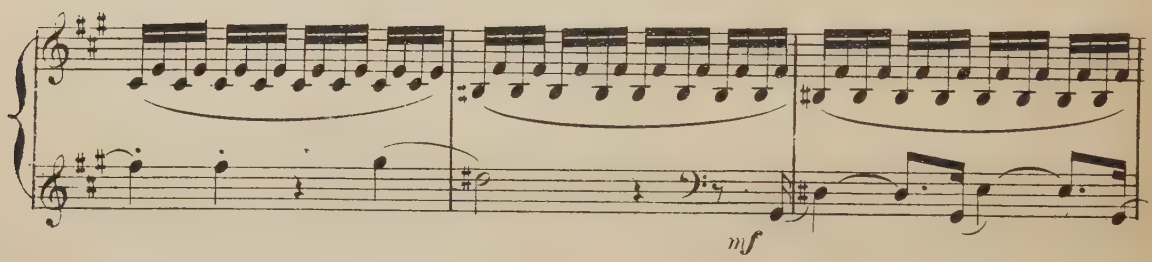
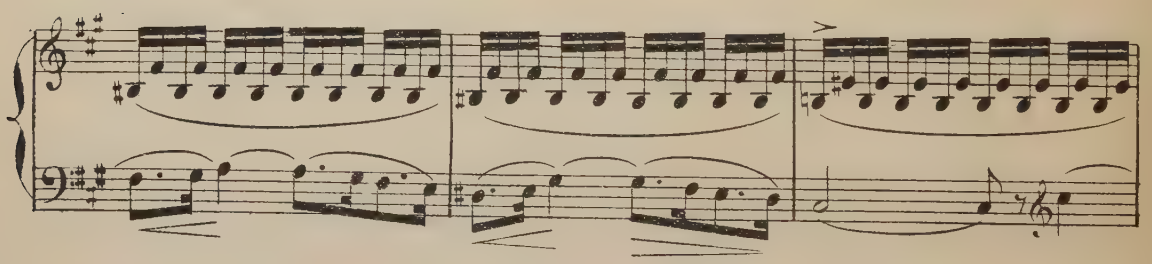
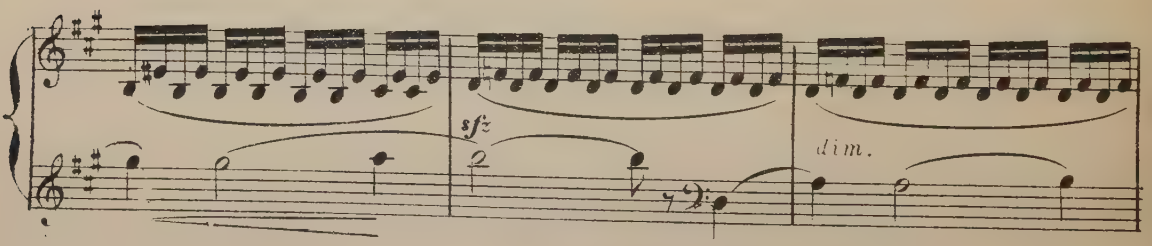
pour lui en faire respirer le parfum.

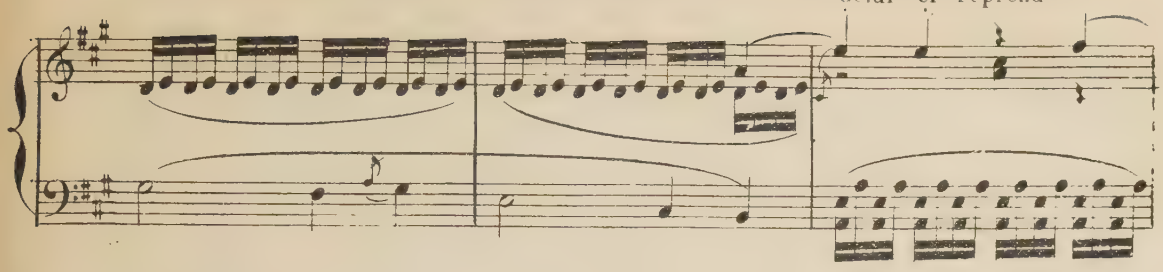








Celui-ci reprend



peu-à-peu ses sens et rouvre les yeux à la grande joie des paysans et des bergers qui s'extasient devant le prodige. Mais Aminta, en retrouvant la vie, a retrouvé la mémoire; il se désole au souvenir des enchantés de Sylvia et regrette la mort qui du moins lui donnait l'oubli.

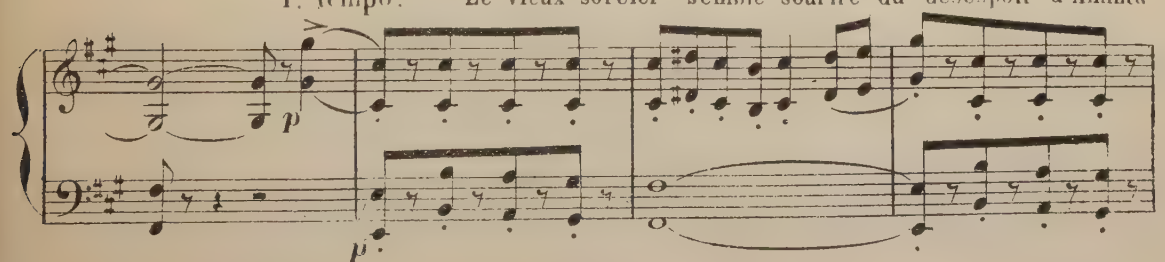
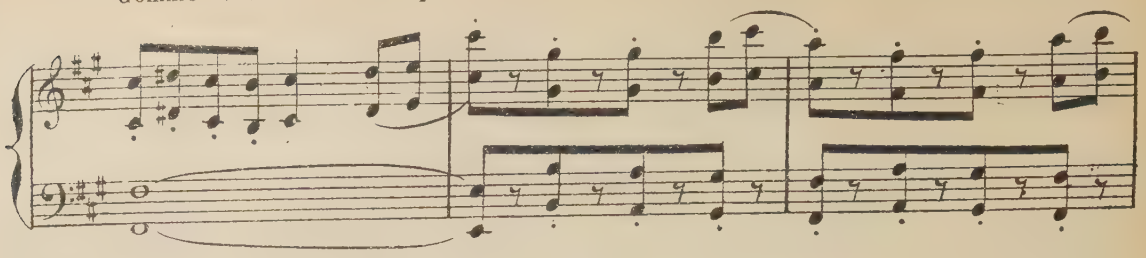
1º tempo. Le vieux sorcier semble sourire du désespoir d'Aminta



Comme il a des secrets pour guerir les maux du corps, il en a aussi pour porter re-


-mède aux maladies de l'âme. Qui sait si à son tour l'ingrate n'a pas été blessée d'une flèche comme l'Amour seul peut en décocher, ajoute le sorcier en montrant le Dieu de marbre dont l'arc est détendu. Où est Sylvia? demande Aminta désespéré!

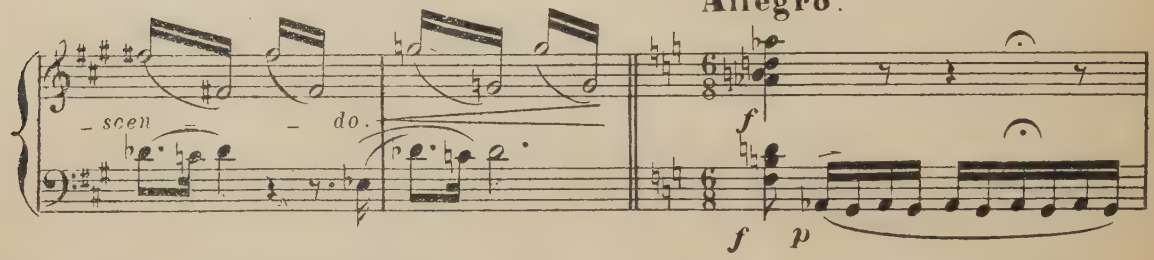
Allegro.



Entends-tu cette fanfare sauvage? C'est Orion, le chasseur noir dont la trompe se fait entendre, qui a ravi Sylvia. Malheur à qui se trouve sur ses pas!

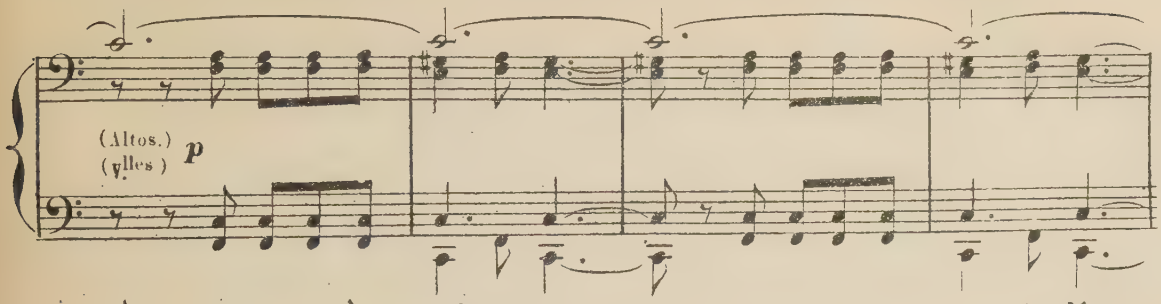
Le jeune berger rentre en scène tenant à la main le manteau déchiré de Sylvia.


Aminta veut à tout prix arracher la Nymphe des bras de son rival, il s'élance à la poursuite d'Orion; en vain ses compagnons cherchent à le retenir, il les repousse et vient s'agenouiller devant la statue de l'Amour pour lui adresser une dernière prière.

Maestoso. Tout-à-coup la statue disparait et l'Amour dans son costume de Dieu paraît à sa place sur le piédestal, son arc à la main. C'est lui qui, pour secourir Aminta, avait pris les habits d'un vieux sorcier. Il indique de la main, au berger, la direction dans laquelle Orion s'est éloigné en entraînant Sylvia.

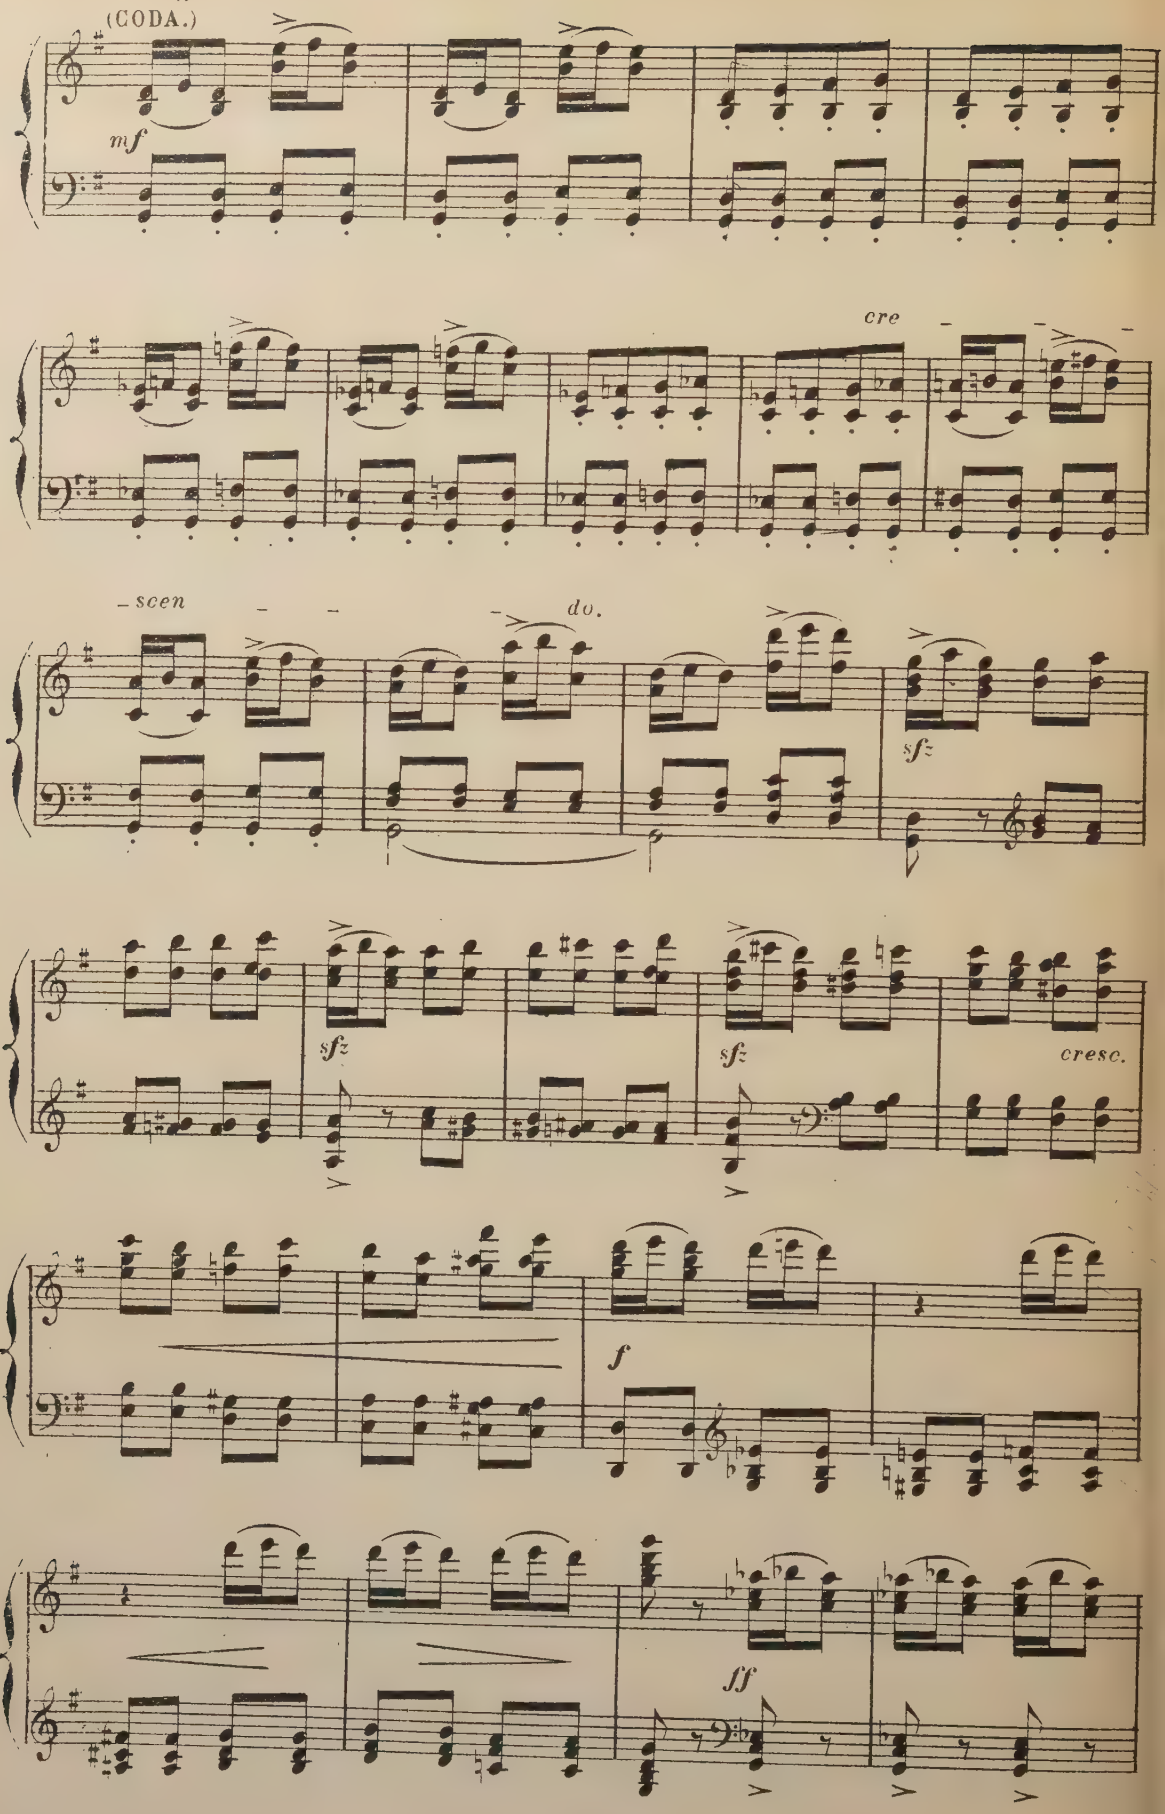
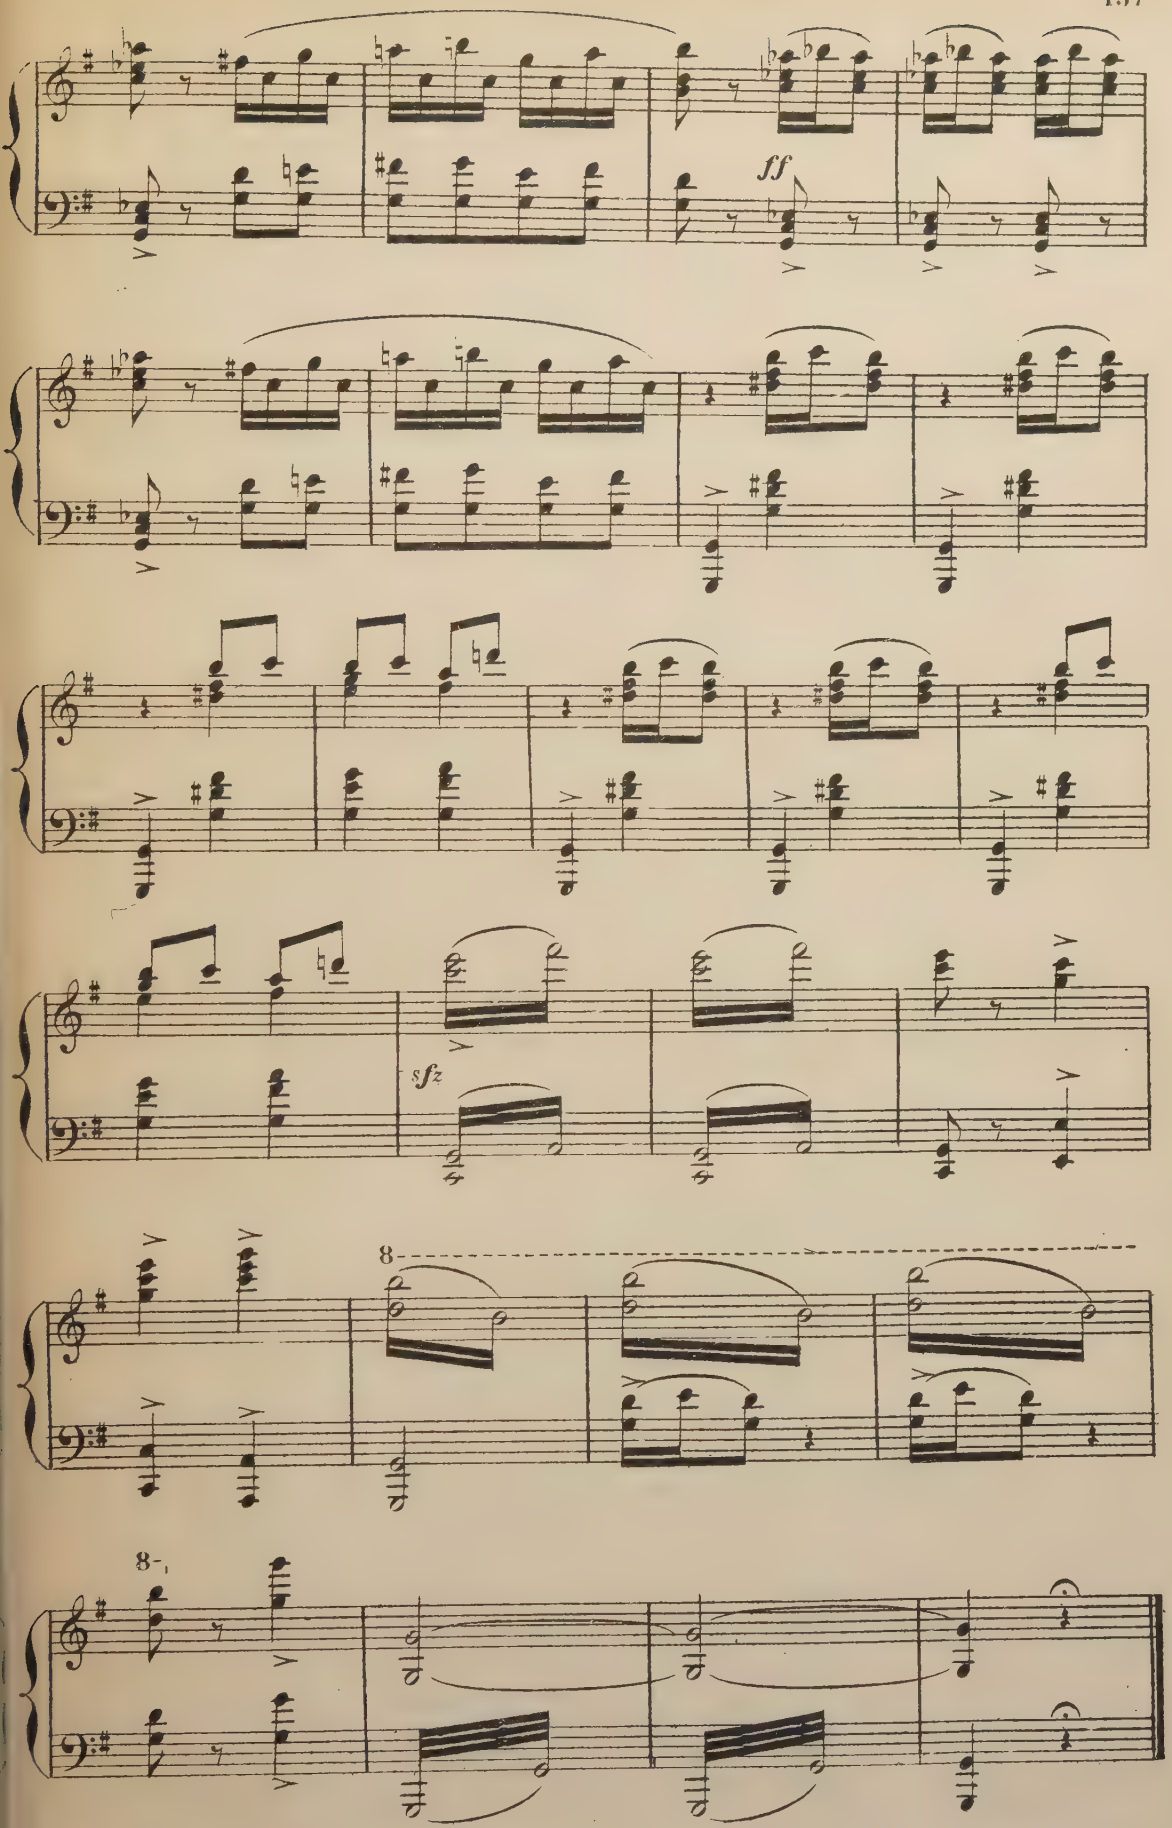
Allegro vivo.





(FIN DU DIVERTISSEMENT)

LE TEMPLE DE DIANE.

FINAL.

Allegro.

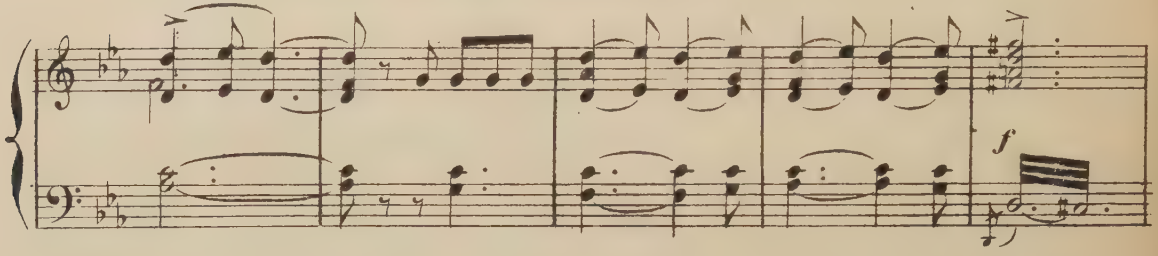
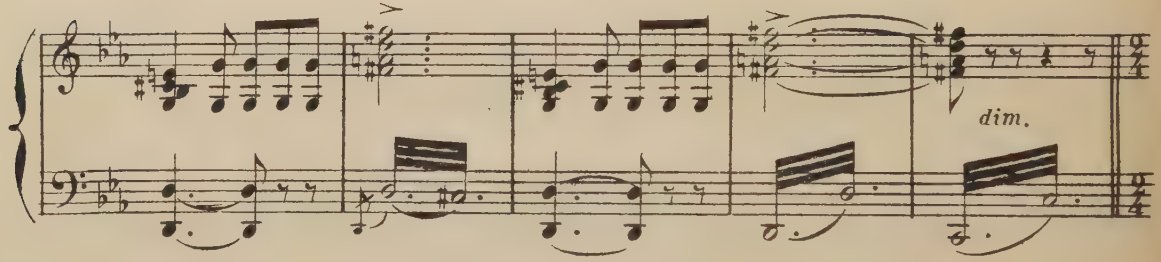
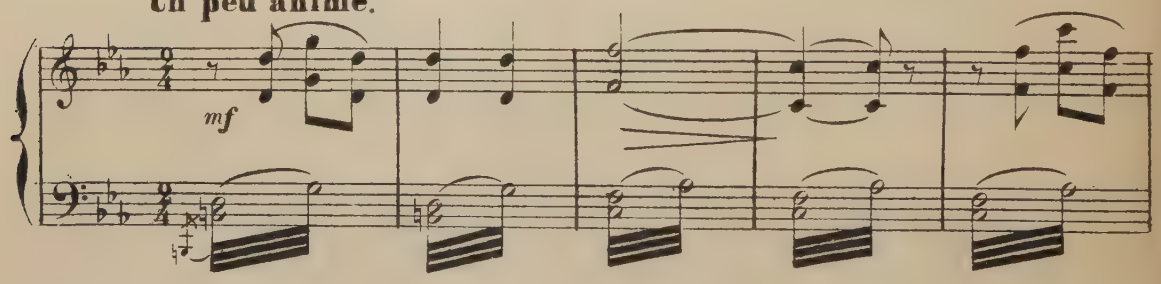
Orion paraît, et, reconnaissant Aminta avec Sylvia, brandit sa hache avec fureur.

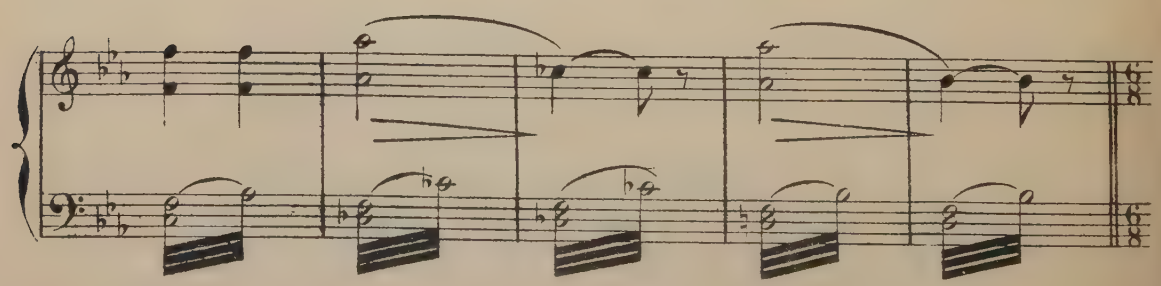




Sylvia enlace Aminta de ses bras et veut l'entraîner vers le temple de Diane,

Un peu animé.





Mais le berger se dégage de son étreinte, saisit un thyrse et semble prêt à lutter avec Orion.
La nymphe éperdue invoque la déesse et se précipite vers le temple dont les portes se referment derrière elle.

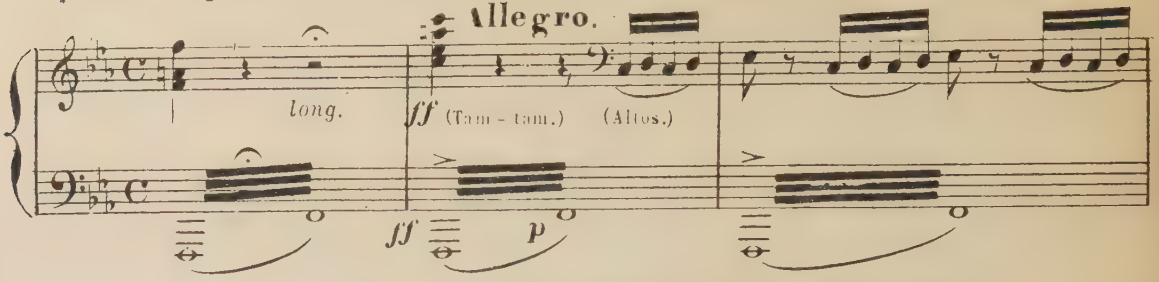
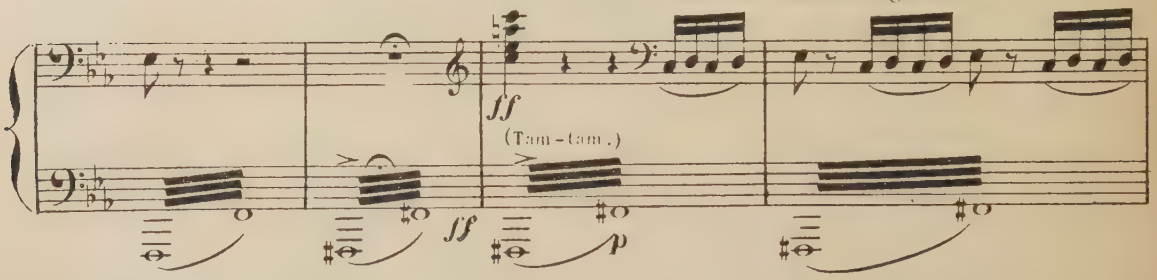
Orion, furieux de voir Sylvia lui échapper; s'élance à sa poursuite, et s'arrêtant devant les portes du temple, laisse retomber par trois fois sa hache sur l'airain retentissant.


Le ciel s'obscurcit. Le tonnerre gronde.



Au troisième coup frappé par Orion, les portes du temple s'ouvrent avec fracas. Diane est sur le seuil, menaçante, son arc à la main. Sylvia est à ses pieds.

And.te sostenuto. Diane descend les degrés du temple.

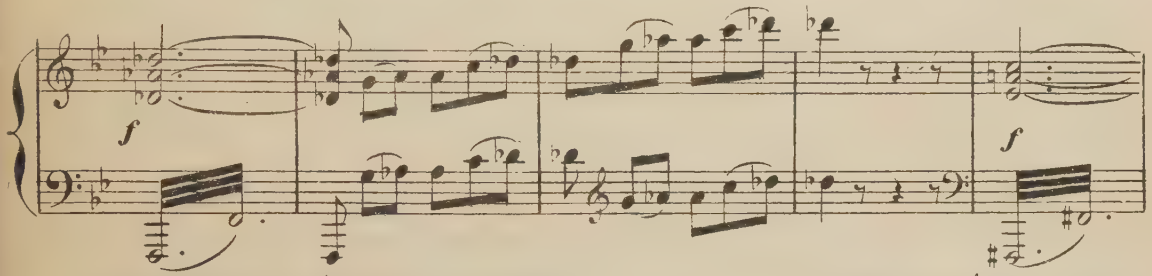
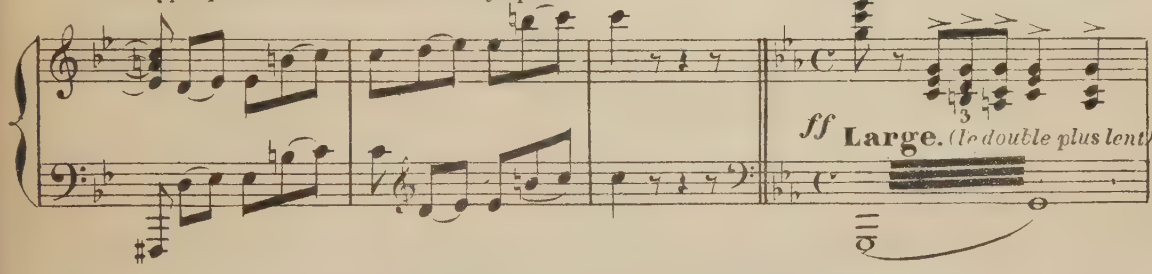
Aminta s'avance, et se prosternant devant Diane: je suis le seul coupable, dit-il;



ne frappe que moi. Grâce! disent les nymphes. Non! dit la déesse inexorable.



Un violent coup de tonnerre se fait entendre; tout le monde baisse la tête et demeure immobile; l'Amour seul est resté debout devant Diane.

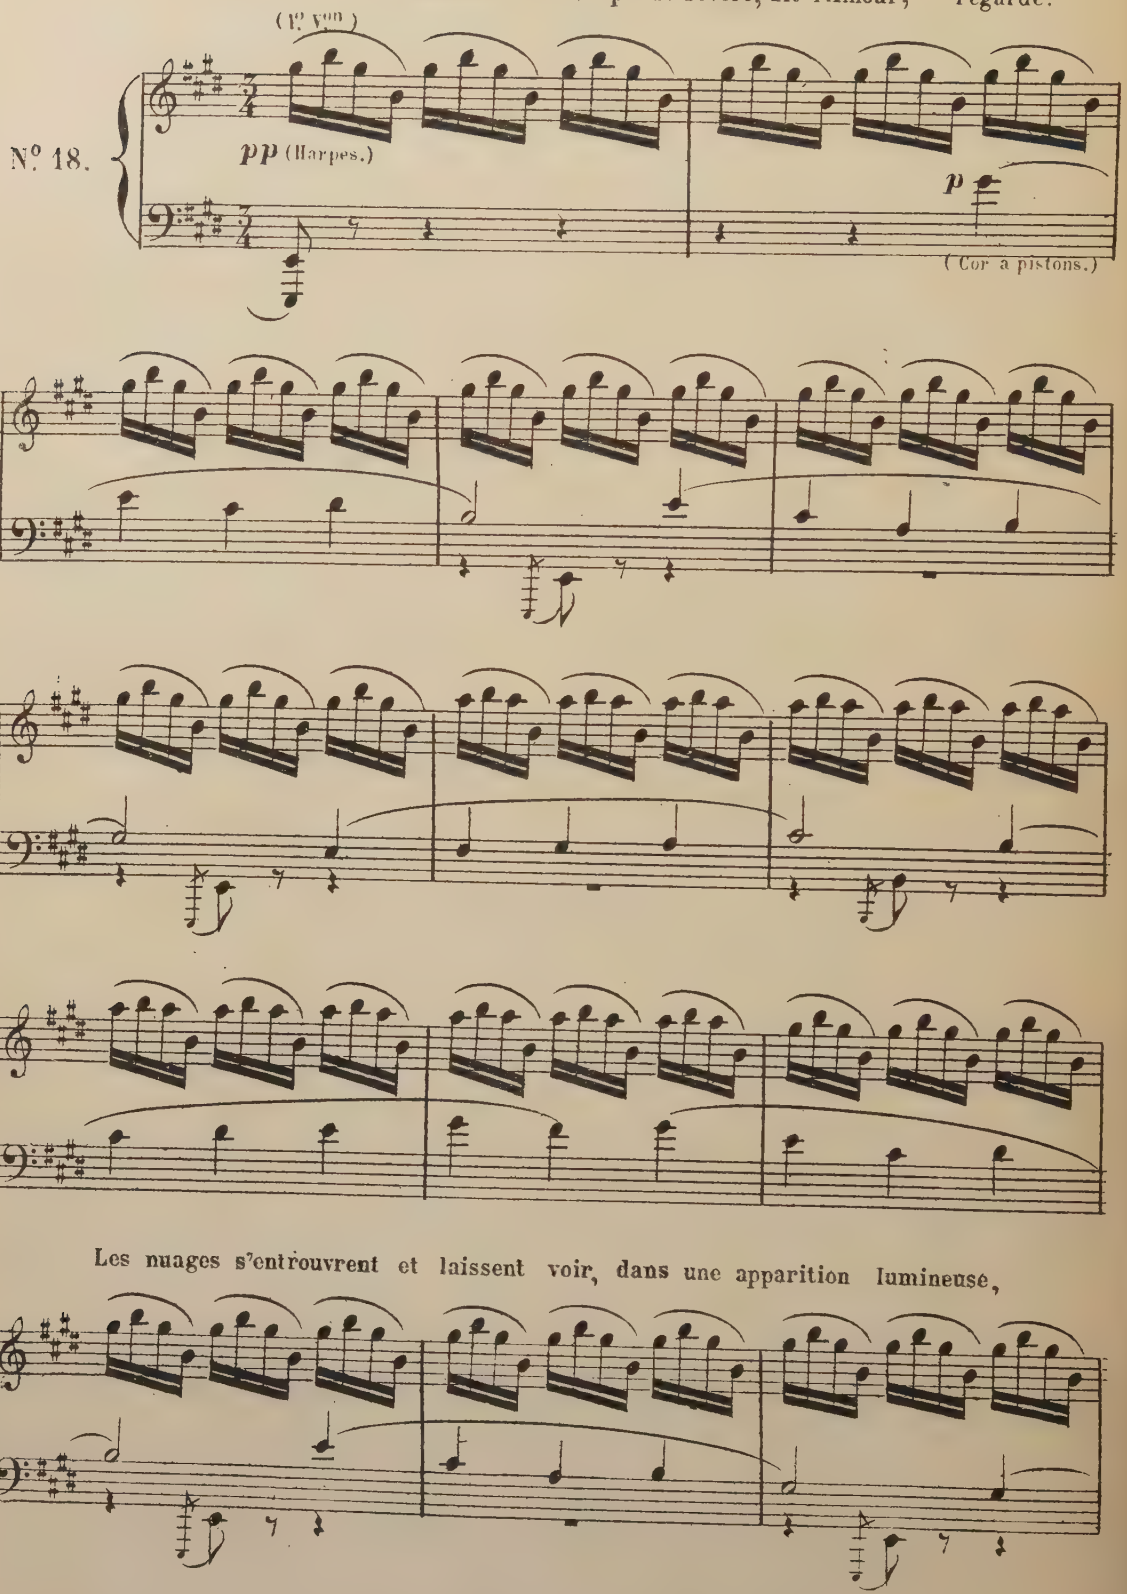
APPARITION D'ENDYMION.

APOTHÉOSE.

Andante con moto. Ne sois pas si sévère, dit l'Amour; regarde!



Les nuages s'entrouvrent et laissent voir, dans une apparition lumineuse, Endymion endormi et Diane elle-même,...

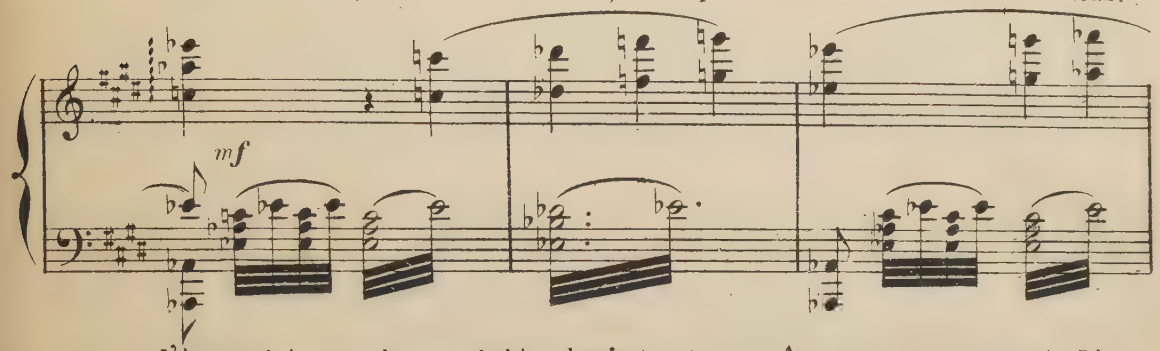
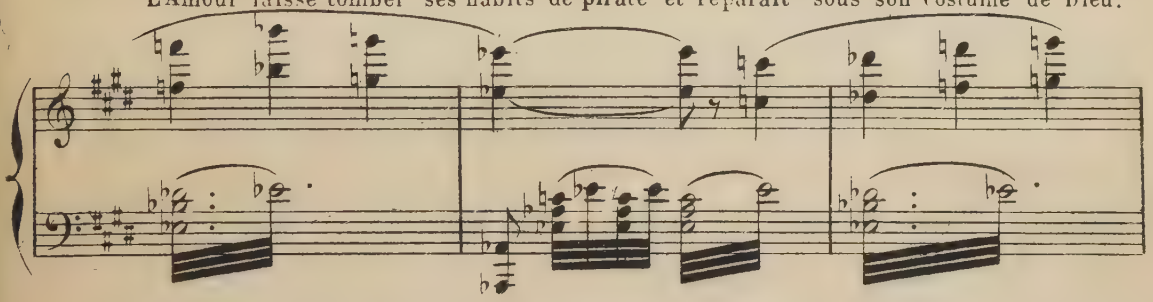
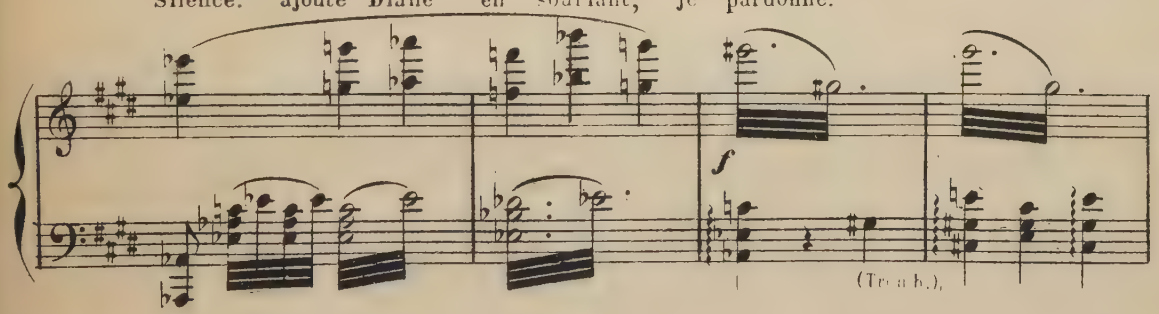
Qui donc est-tu, semble-t-elle dire, toi qui connais les secrets des Dieux?



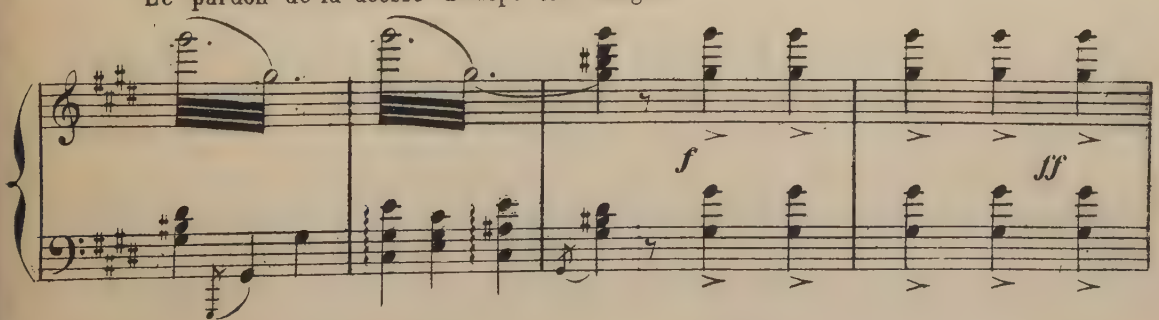
L'Amour laisse tomber ses habits de pirate et reparaît sous son costume de Dieu.

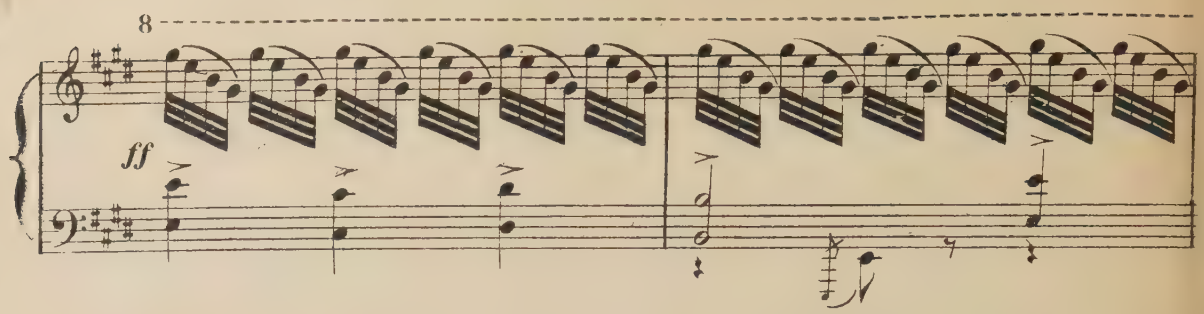


Silence! ajoute Diane en souriant, je pardonne.



Le pardon de la déesse dissipe les nuages.



Le palais de Diane apparaît dans toute sa splendeur.


La Déesse remonte vers le fond de la scène et, appuyée sur l'Amour, entourée de ses nymphes, elle sourit aux deux amants qui s'inclinent devant les dieux protecteurs.
